In addition to the titles below, Sharon and Sky competed in the ParAgility World Cup in Hungary. (Agility is a timed competition where handlers direct their dogs through a numbered course, going over and through various obstacles, such as A-Frames, jumps, tunnels, teeter totter, and dog walk. Just like the Olympics have able bodied athletes and the Paralympics have athletes with disabilities, the IMCA World Cup Championship is for able bodied handlers and their dogs and the PAWC, ParAgility World Cup Championship is open to disabled handlers and their dogs.) Sky won a Silver Medal in the Standard Class and a Gold Medal in the Jumpers Class. He finished 4th place overall in the World!
